What we do

Online learning and information resources
We have over 100 different handouts which contain information and further reading on various sectors. We also have a series of handouts relating to career management skills, such as CVs, Interviews, and Networking. Everything we produce is available online at kcl.ac.uk/careerkit. Our Careers Hub on KEATS provides you with access to innovative careers education for your personal and professional development, at any time and from anywhere. Resources on IoPPN career options in healthcare, medicine, and health sciences, also the DClinPsy resources can be found via our Careers IoPPN KEATS page by visiting online.

IoPPN Career Lounges
Look out for Career Lounges in your department and our informal Drop-In sessions. We will be hosting weekly drop-ins in the IoPPN Main Building Lobby, 12:30-1:30pm every Tuesday. Weekly drop-ins at Guy’s dates to be confirmed.

King’s Internships
Wherever you are on your journey, we can connect you with high-quality internship opportunities that will help you discover what it means to work in a specific job or sector, focus your ideas by gaining work experiences, and develop key skills that are highly valued by employers.

King’s Experience
The King’s Experience Awards provide opportunities to recognise and reward the activities you undertake alongside your academic studies, enhancing your learning and employability, and broadening your experience whilst studying at King’s.

Workshops
We run a programme of workshops in King’s Careers & Employability that cover your entire journey from exploring potential careers to succeeding at interviews. By attending our careers workshops, you will focus your understanding, gain new skills, and access to key information.

One-to-one services
We offer various services to help you steer your professional future in the direction you want to go. Whether you’ve not yet discovered what you want to do with your life, or need support putting your well-defined career plans into action, we’re here to help. You can book a Careers Guidance appointments, Practice Interviews, or Application Advice appointments using King’s CareerConnect; this is also available via Skype.

If you have been invited to an interview by an employer, book a one-hour practice interview appointment. Specialist IoPPN appointments are available at Denmark Hill.

Online learning and information resources
We have over 100 different handouts which contain information and further reading on various sectors. We also have a series of handouts relating to career management skills, such as CVs, Interviews, and Networking. Everything we produce is available online at kcl.ac.uk/careerkit. Our Careers Hub on KEATS provides you with access to innovative careers education for your personal and professional development, at any time and from anywhere. Resources on IoPPN career options in healthcare, medicine, and health sciences, also the DClinPsy resources can be found via our Careers IoPPN KEATS page by visiting online.

IoPPN Career Lounges
Look out for Career Lounges in your department and our informal Drop-In sessions. We will be hosting weekly drop-ins in the IoPPN Main Building Lobby, 12:30-1:30pm every Tuesday. Weekly drop-ins at Guy’s dates to be confirmed.

King’s Internships
Wherever you are on your journey, we can connect you with high-quality internship opportunities that will help you discover what it means to work in a specific job or sector, focus your ideas by gaining work experiences, and develop key skills that are highly valued by employers.

King’s Experience
The King’s Experience Awards provide opportunities to recognise and reward the activities you undertake alongside your academic studies, enhancing your learning and employability, and broadening your experience whilst studying at King’s.

Workshops
We run a programme of workshops in King’s Careers & Employability that cover your entire journey from exploring potential careers to succeeding at interviews. By attending our careers workshops, you will focus your understanding, gain new skills, and access to key information.

One-to-one services
We offer various services to help you steer your professional future in the direction you want to go. Whether you’ve not yet discovered what you want to do with your life, or need support putting your well-defined career plans into action, we’re here to help. You can book a Careers Guidance appointments, Practice Interviews, or Application Advice appointments using King’s CareerConnect; this is also available via Skype.

If you have been invited to an interview by an employer, book a one-hour practice interview appointment. Specialist IoPPN appointments are available at Denmark Hill.

Online learning and information resources
We have over 100 different handouts which contain information and further reading on various sectors. We also have a series of handouts relating to career management skills, such as CVs, Interviews, and Networking. Everything we produce is available online at kcl.ac.uk/careerkit. Our Careers Hub on KEATS provides you with access to innovative careers education for your personal and professional development, at any time and from anywhere. Resources on IoPPN career options in healthcare, medicine, and health sciences, also the DClinPsy resources can be found via our Careers IoPPN KEATS page by visiting online.

IoPPN Career Lounges
Look out for Career Lounges in your department and our informal Drop-In sessions. We will be hosting weekly drop-ins in the IoPPN Main Building Lobby, 12:30-1:30pm every Tuesday. Weekly drop-ins at Guy’s dates to be confirmed.

King’s Internships
Wherever you are on your journey, we can connect you with high-quality internship opportunities that will help you discover what it means to work in a specific job or sector, focus your ideas by gaining work experiences, and develop key skills that are highly valued by employers.

King’s Experience
The King’s Experience Awards provide opportunities to recognise and reward the activities you undertake alongside your academic studies, enhancing your learning and employability, and broadening your experience whilst studying at King’s.

Workshops
We run a programme of workshops in King’s Careers & Employability that cover your entire journey from exploring potential careers to succeeding at interviews. By attending our careers workshops, you will focus your understanding, gain new skills, and access to key information.

One-to-one services
We offer various services to help you steer your professional future in the direction you want to go. Whether you’ve not yet discovered what you want to do with your life, or need support putting your well-defined career plans into action, we’re here to help. You can book a Careers Guidance appointments, Practice Interviews, or Application Advice appointments using King’s CareerConnect; this is also available via Skype.

If you have been invited to an interview by an employer, book a one-hour practice interview appointment. Specialist IoPPN appointments are available at Denmark Hill.

Online learning and information resources
We have over 100 different handouts which contain information and further reading on various sectors. We also have a series of handouts relating to career management skills, such as CVs, Interviews, and Networking. Everything we produce is available online at kcl.ac.uk/careerkit. Our Careers Hub on KEATS provides you with access to innovative careers education for your personal and professional development, at any time and from anywhere. Resources on IoPPN career options in healthcare, medicine, and health sciences, also the DClinPsy resources can be found via our Careers IoPPN KEATS page by visiting online.

IoPPN Career Lounges
Look out for Career Lounges in your department and our informal Drop-In sessions. We will be hosting weekly drop-ins in the IoPPN Main Building Lobby, 12:30-1:30pm every Tuesday. Weekly drop-ins at Guy’s dates to be confirmed.

King’s Internships
Wherever you are on your journey, we can connect you with high-quality internship opportunities that will help you discover what it means to work in a specific job or sector, focus your ideas by gaining work experiences, and develop key skills that are highly valued by employers.

King’s Experience
The King’s Experience Awards provide opportunities to recognise and reward the activities you undertake alongside your academic studies, enhancing your learning and employability, and broadening your experience whilst studying at King’s.

Visit King’s CareerConnect to create your profile and access our services: kcl.ac.uk/careerconnect
This programme includes a range of events you may be interested in attending. Events organised specifically for IoPPN students are based at Denmark Hill and highlighted in blue.

We hold hundreds of events every year to help you find out more about what sectors, careers, job opportunities and internships are available to you. This includes our Discover Careers in... series, Careers Fairs, Internships Night, Careers Cafes, and employer promotions.

To book all events and see our full events programme visit King’s Career Connect.

In IoPPN Student feedback

I now feel that I can make a more informed decision about my career path.