A wide range of graduate roles exist within the insurance and pensions sector. This is set to increase with recent government and legislative fiscal changes, particularly in relation to changes in company pensions and the need for consultants and advisers. Opportunities exist within the private and public sector. The main graduate entry-level roles include consulting, pension administration and management brokering, underwriting and loss adjusting.

Actuarial work

The Actuarial Profession
www.actuaries.org.uk
The Actuarial Profession is the UK professional body for Actuaries.

Association of Consulting Actuaries (ACA)
www.aca.org.uk
The ACA is the representative body in the UK for individuals practicing as consulting actuaries.

The Actuary
www.theactuary.com
This is the official magazine for the actuarial profession.

Inside Careers: Actuaries
www.insidecareers.co.uk/actuaries
Inside Careers has worked with The Actuarial Profession to put together information and resources on a career as an actuary.

Pensions

The Pensions Management Institute (PMI)
www.pensions-pmi.org.uk
This is a professional body for those working in the fields of pensions and employee benefits. The site contains a comprehensive list of links to other relevant sites.

National Association of Pension Funds
www.napf.co.uk
NAPF is a UK body which represents those involved in designing, operating and advising in pension provision.

Inside Careers: Pensions
www.insidecareers.co.uk/pensions
Inside Careers has worked with The Pensions Management Institute to put together information and resources on a career in pensions.

Pensions World
www.pensionsworld.co.uk
Pensions World is a monthly magazine aimed at professionals in the pensions industry.

Professional Pensions
www.professionalpensions.com
This publication and website is aimed at professionals who work in the occupational pension’s field.

Insurance

The Association of British Insurers
www.abi.org.uk
The ABI represents the interests of the UK insurance industry.